ADDITIONAL TERMS FOR CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to the Mandatory Victims Restitution Act of 1996, for each of counts five, six and seven, the defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $67,000.

Payments of restitution shall be made to the clerk of the court for transfer to the victims.

All criminal monetary penalties are due in full immediately. The defendant shall pay all criminal monetary penalties through the Clerk of Court. If the defendant cannot pay in full immediately, then the defendant shall make payments under the following minimum payment schedule: during incarceration, it is recommended that the defendant pay criminal monetary penalties through an installment plan in accordance with BOP Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program at the rate of 50% of the fund available to the defendant. If the defendant owes any criminal monetary penalties when released from incarceration, then the defendant shall make payments in monthly installments of at least $200.00, or no less than 10% of the defendant's gross earnings, whichever is greater, with payments to commence no later than 30 days after release of imprisonment. Until all criminal monetary penalties are paid in full, the defendant shall notify the court and this district's US Attorney's Office, Financial Litigation Unit, of any material changes in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the criminal monetary penalties. The defendant shall notify this district's United States Attorney's Office, Financial Litigation Unit, of any change in mailing or residence address that occurs while any portion of the criminal monetary penalties remains unpaid.

It is recommended that the defendant participate in the Financial Responsibility Program while incarcerated, if that is consistent with the Bureau of Prisons policies.
